

Take a look at me. When I'm down.
It's only day 3, and I'm wound.
Best to let me be, I'll come around.
But until then, I'm still down.

I guess I never get enough. When my luck is down.
I guess I never get enough. I'm just a clown.

You don't wanna be me, when I'm down.
You don't wanna meet me, when I'm down.
It's not a place to be, when I'm down.

I know you gotta leave, when I'm down.
Better let me be, when I'm down.
Don't you come around, when I'm down.

I guess I never get enough. When my luck is down.
I guess I never get enough. When my luck is down.
I'm just a clown.

Don't you even think, of coming around.
Cause you'll wear out your welcome to long.
I'll be count'n down the time, til you're gone.

Cause you'll wear out your welcome to long.
And I always know the side that you're on.
You can go ahead, and sing your sad song.
Cause a new side of me, just turned on.

Cause you'll wear out your welcome to long.
And I don't give a fuck, if I'm wrong.
Go ahead, and sing your sad song.
A new side of me, just turned on.
YOU...

I guess I never get enough. When my luck is down.
Never get enough. When my luck is down.
I'm a clown. I'm a clown. I'm a clown.

KLOWN...
