

Monkeys In Trees – EMERALD

I saw a headline in a magazine. Not sure if I know what it means.
The next time, I knew when I read it. I don't think, I'll ever forget that.
I saw a headline in a magazine. Next thing it's all over tv.
But this time, I thought I forgot it. I only wish, I never had saw it.
I saw the online version, you see. I'm not sure if I know what it means.
It's always out there, and everyone sees. Like forever, it never leaves.

I saw monkeys, sitt'n in trees, not kept, covered in fleas.
I'm not sure, I know what it means. Might be viral, spreading disease.
Kitten got killed, car engine fan. A little too cozy, that's what they said.
Then the stock market crash, the nation at war.
The weather's been worse than ever before.

I saw a headline in a magazine. Next thing it's all over tv.
But this time, I thought I forgot it. I only wish, I never had saw it.
I saw the online version, you see. Not sure if I know what it means.
It's always out there, and everyone sees. Like forever, it never leaves.

Man : Yeah I know a guy, doesn't have any kind of mobile device, and he just says, fuck the internet, it's all bullshit anyway.

I saw a headline in a magazine. Not sure if I know what it means.
The next time, I knew when I read it. I don't think, I'll ever forget that.

It's just as well as if we were monkeys in trees.
Eat meat, so they say on the big screen.
It's too much, not only for me.
It's like the world is broken you see.

Take a breath, and a good look around.
Take a deep breath, and sit yourself down.
Stayed tuned, for later this evening.
I'm sure we'll find something believing.
