

(On This) Silent Night – EMERALD

So I'm sitting here, on this silent night.
It's the time of year, when all the Christmas lights.
Shine so clear, through the day and night.
I'm kind of happy now, on this silent night.
Yeah.....
Everyone you see, has so much to do.
That just ain't for me, like you always knew.
If you take a while, to sit back and see.
Almost everyone's got that Christmas smile.
You Need.....
I heard some footsteps, on this silent night.
Good friends around me, and we're feeling fine.
Some kind of snow man, but his head ain't right.
Got a tree up, on its wayward side.
Not much to look at, but it works just fine.
For Me.....
Snow is falling down, on this silent night.
Santa comes to town, on a moonlight ride.
Let's sing a Christmas song, cause it feels alright.
And you can sing along, any time you like.
It's Christmas time again, everywhere in sight.
Tonight.....
Yeah Tonight.....
On This Silent Night.
